

With Love from the UP

When my husband and I were first dating, we went on a trip to Michigan's Upper Peninsula. The day was sunny, and we were giddy and happy to be together. The view from the top of the Mackinaw Bridge was stunning...we could see for miles.

When we arrived at the toll booth on the other side, the attendant told us that the car in front of us had paid for our toll. She said the message from the person was "Have a good time in the UP and buy yourself some pancakes for breakfast."

It was such a surprise, and that small, simple gesture delighted us so much. Someone was going around doing nice things, just to brighten a stranger's day!

Well, you bet that since that day, we have crossed the Mackinaw Bridge about a billion times, and each time we do, we pay for the car behind us. I hope it brightens people's day...I know it did mine!
